Sedition colonial-era law, why not scrap it, says SC

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, 15 July

Concerned over “enormous misuse” of the colonial era penal law on sedition, the Supreme Court on Thursday asked the Centre as to why it was not repealing the provision used by the British to “silence” people like Mahatma Gandhi to suppress freedom movement.

Agreeing to examine the pleas filed by Editors Guild of India and a former major general, challenging the constitutionality of section 124A (sedition) in the IPC, a bench headed by CJI NV Ramana said its main concern was the “misuse of law” and issued the notice to the Centre.

The non-bailable provision makes any speech or expression that “brings or attempts to bring into hatred or contempt or excites or attempts to excite disaffection towards the Government established by law in India” a criminal offence punishable with a maximum sentence of life imprisonment.

“Mr Attorney (General). We want to ask some questions. This is the colonial era law and the same law was used by the British to suppress freedom movement. It was used by British to silence Mahatma Gandhi, Gokhale and others.

“Is it still necessary to keep this in statute even after 75 years of independence?”, asked the bench which also comprised justices AS Bopanna and Hrishikesh Roy.

Observing that the provision on sedition has been put to “enormous misuse”, it also referred to alarming misuse of Section 66A of the Information Technology Act even after the top court set it aside long back and observed: “It can be compared to a carpenter, asked to cut a wood, cut the entire forest.” “A factionist can invoke these types of (penal) provisions to implicate the other

Sedition case filed against 100 farmers

Police has registered a case against over 100 protesters on various charges in connection with the incident on Sunday in which Haryana Assembly Deputy Speaker Ranbir Gangwa's car came under attack during a farmers' protest targeting events of BJP leaders. As the state government took serious view of the incident, heads rolled and Sirsa district police chief Bhupender Singh was transferred, while an Inspector-rank official was placed under suspension. "We have registered an FIR against 100-150 protesters under various provisions of the Indian Penal Code (IPC)...

"Section 124 A (sedition) has also been added in the FIR and further investigations are on," Station House Officer (SHO) Civil Lines police station, Inspector Vikram Singh said over the phone earlier in the day on Tuesday. PTI group of people,” the CJI said, adding that if a particular party or people do not want to hear a voice, they will use this law to implicate others.

The bench wondered at the continuance of the sedition law in statute book for last 75 years and said: “We do not know why the government is not taking a decision. Your government has been getting rid of stale laws.”

The bench said that it was not blaming any state or government, but unfortunately, the executing agency misuses these laws and “there is no accountability”.

In a hearing, conducted through video-conferencing, the bench said that if a police officer in a remote village wanted to fix a person then he can easily do so by using such provisions.

Moreover, said the bench, there was very low percentage of convictions in sedition cases and these are the issues which are needed to be decided.

Attorney General KK Venugopal, who was asked to assist the bench in dealing with the case, defended the provision and said it be allowed to remain in the statute book and the court may laid down guidelines to curb the misuse.

China bats for mutual solution to LAC issues

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Beijing, 15 July

With India firmly conveying to China that the prolongation of the existing situation in eastern Ladakh was visibly impacting the bilateral ties in a “negative manner”, Beijing on Thursday said it is ready to seek a “mutually acceptable solution” to the issues that require “urgent treatment” through negotiation.

During their hour-long in-person meeting on the sidelines of an SCO conclave in Dushanbe on Wednesday, External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar also told his Chinese counterpart and State Councilor Wang Yi that any unilateral change in the status quo along the Line of Actual Control (LAC) was “not acceptable” to India and that the overall ties can only develop after full restoration of peace and tranquillity in eastern Ladakh.

Earlier in the day, the Chinese minister said that India-China relations remained at a “low point”

The meeting in Tajikistan's capital took place amidst a stalemate in the disengagement process between the two militaries in the remaining friction points in eastern Ladakh after they withdrew troops and weapons from the Pangong Lake areas in February following series of military and diplomatic talks to resolve the standoff since May last year.

In a statement posted on its website on Thursday on Wang's talks with Jaishankar, the Chinese Foreign Ministry said, the minister stated that India-China relations remained at a “low point” while the situation at the border has “generally been easing” after the withdrawal of troops from the Galwan Valley and Pangong Lake.

While reiterating China's stand that it was not responsible for the border situation, Wang said that “China is ready to seek a mutually acceptable solution to the issues that require urgent treatment through negotiation and consultation with the Indian side.”

While China moved its troops from Galwan Valley and Pangong Tso, the disengagement has not been completed from other friction points like Hot Springs, Gogra and Depsang.

In Varanasi, Modi calls UP CM's handling of Covid 'unprecedented'

VIRENDRA SINGH RAWAT
Lucknow, 15 July

Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday showered praises on UP Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath for “dexterously tackling the Covid-19 pandemic” in the country's most populous state.

Addressing a public meeting in his parliamentary constituency Varanasi, Modi said UP's population was greater than several big nations, yet Adityanath and his team “performed exceedingly well to bend the coronavirus curve amid overwhelming challenges during the second wave”.

The PM's remarks lay to rest murmurs of a purported thaw in the relationship between Modi and Yogi over the latter's alleged Covid mismanagement in the state, and his style of functioning. Speaking in Varanasi, Modi urged people to follow Covid-appropriate behaviour and said although the positivity rate had slowed down, the danger was far from over as had been witnessed in some countries. “Everyone should get vaccinated and follow all safety protocols,” he said.

The PM inaugurated various development projects and laid the foundation of some others, including an international convention centre with a seating capacity of 1,200. The combined value of all these projects is ₹1,583 crore.

Speaking at the IIT-BHU ground, Modi said while projects worth more than ₹10,000 crore had already been dedicated to the people of Varanasi, additional ones worth ₹8,000 crore were underway in the temple town.

Modi said the positive turnaround in UP happened due to the unflinching focus of the Adityanath government on improving infrastructure, roads, railways, highways, etc. “The development of this infrastructure will not only improve the quality of life, but provide a conducive environment for businesses to thrive,” he said.

Modi recalled all flagship infra projects in UP, namely Defence Corridor, Purvanchal Expressway, Bundelkhand Expressway, Gorakhpur Link Expressway, Ganga Expressway, etc., which, he said, would take the state to the pinnacle in the coming decade.

Meanwhile, making an informal electoral pitch for the high-stake 2022 UP assembly polls, Modi firmly defended the new farm laws, citing record procurement of foodgrains to drive home his pro-farmer narrative. Modi said the Centre was working to improve the government procurement system and give more agri marketing options to farmers.

നിദേശ(പകാരം) ചെലവാകുന്ന ചികിത്സാമെമ്പും സൗജന്യമാണ്.

നിലവിൽ അലോപ്പതി ചികിത്സയ്ക്കു മാത്രമേ ആനുകൂല്യം ലഭിക്കുകയുള്ളൂ. ഏതു (പ്രധാനമായും) വൈദ്യരായും പദ്ധതിയിൽ അംഗമാകാം. നിലവിലുള്ള രോഗങ്ങൾക്കും സൗജന്യ ചികിത്സാ ആനുകൂല്യം ലഭിക്കും. കിടന്നു ചികിത്സിക്കുന്ന വേളയിൽ ഏർപ്പെട്ട, സ്കാനിംഗ് ഉൾപ്പെടെയുള്ള എല്ലാ പരിശോധനകളും സൗജന്യമായിരിക്കും.

തൊഴിൽ നിയമത്തിൽ മാറ്റം വരുത്തില്ല. സംസ്ഥാനത്തൊരിടത്തും തൊഴിൽ സമരങ്ങളോ, അത്തരം പ്രശ്നങ്ങളോ ഇപ്പോഴില്ല. സിനിമാ ഷൂട്ടിംഗ് ഹൈദരാബാദിലേക്കു പോയതും തൃക്കാലികമാണെന്നും ബാലഗോപാൽ അഭിപ്രായപ്പെട്ടു.
